

Bartlesville Community Foundation
Spring 2010 Grant Cycle

Origin and Purpose: Bartlesville Community Foundation was founded by community leaders in 1999 as a means of providing a simple way to do good works. The Foundation partners with donors to fund initiatives that improve the quality of life in the Bartlesville area.

Restriction: The Foundation generally makes grants only to non-profit organizations with 501(c) (3) status and qualified governmental agencies, though the charitable program/initiative coordinated by a non-tax-exempt entity will also be considered. Grants are not awarded in the following areas: annual fund raising, organizational endowment funds, deficit financing, grants to individuals, or for sectarian purposes. Challenge/matching grants may be initiated by the Foundation.

Procedures: The availability of grant awards is published by Bartlesville Community Foundation. Grant cycles may focus on a particular field of emphasis or may allow for general applications. Grant amounts will vary. The Foundation rarely awards multi-year grants.

When a grant check is cashed, the organization is obligated to use the dollars for the purpose given in the application. Grant recipients are required to file a written report describing the use of the funds after the program/initiative is completed or nine months after the grant has been received. Grant reporting instructions are provided to all grant recipients.

Application information: Requests for funding must include all information requested in the grant application form provided by Bartlesville Community Foundation. Deadlines for submission will be published with each grant cycle.

Bartlesville Community Foundation is a public community foundation and recognizes the need for flexibility in problem solving. In evaluating applications, Bartlesville Community Foundation gives consideration to the following factors:

- Does the program/initiative serve the community of Bartlesville, Oklahoma or its surrounding areas?
- Does the program/initiative address a priority community need? What are its nature and scope and the number of people served by this program/initiative?
- Will the program/initiative have a positive effect on the community?
- Does the program/initiative duplicate any other community service?
- Will the program/initiative have a significant impact on the need, what outcome will be achieved and how will it be measured?
- Does the program/initiative have a sound financial plan?
- Will this grant constitute matching funds?
- After this program/initiative is completed, how will funding continue? If not funded, what is the effect?
- Does the program/initiative have a broad base of community support such as volunteer involvement, neighborhood participation, and collaboration with other organizations?

Spring 2010 Grant Cycle

Bartlesville Community Foundation is accepting applications for its 2010 Spring Grant cycle. Applications must be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 9, 2010 to BCF, 501 S. Johnstone, Ste. 540A, Bartlesville, OK 74003. Grants will be awarded no later than May 31, 2010.

You may submit a program in more than one category, but a single program may not receive more than one grant. Likewise, you may submit more than one program from your organization.

Grants are available in the following three categories:

- A. Economic Development: programs/initiatives that advance our local economy, increase employment levels, enhance blighted or distressed geographic areas of the community, combat community deterioration, or advance education or science for the benefit of the community's economy. Available grant amount: $10,000.
- B. Legacy Building: programs/initiatives that honor the history of our community, or encourage civic and community service in sustaining the quality of life in Bartlesville, leaving a legacy for future generations. Maximum grant amount: $2,000.
- C. Future Focus: programs/initiatives that seek to identify key components of our community's future vitality and advance efforts toward achieving that vision. Maximum grant amount: $10,000.

Six copies of the grant application should be submitted, as well as one copy of the organization's supporting documents, as required. Each copy should be stapled together. Please no binders or report covers.

Applications must be completed in full using the format specified by the following twenty-two (22) questions/items. Incomplete applications or applications that do not use the format provided will not be considered. Please number each of your responses.

Excerpts from Internal Revenue Service, Treasury § 1.501(c)(3)-1

(d) Exempt purposes—(1) In general. (i)

An organization may be exempt as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) if it is organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) Religious,
- (b) Charitable,
- (c) Scientific,
- (d) Testing for public safety,
- (e) Literary,
- (f) Educational, or
- (g) Prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

(2) Charitable defined. The term charitable is used in section 501(c)(3) in its generally accepted legal sense and is, therefore, not to be construed as limited by the separate enumeration in section 501(c)(3) of other tax-exempt purposes which may fall within the broad outlines of charity as developed by judicial decisions. Such term includes:

Relief of the poor and distressed or of the underprivileged; advancement of religion; advancement of education or science; erection or maintenance of public buildings, monuments, or works; lessening of the burdens of Government; and promotion of social welfare by organizations designed to accomplish any of the above purposes, or (i) to lessen neighborhood tensions; (ii) to eliminate prejudice and discrimination; (iii) to defend human and civil rights secured by law; or (iv) to combat community deterioration and juvenile delinquency.
